

David Ritchie
Box 1419
Bastrop, Texas 78602-1419
(512) 303-0079

S030
Pl. A-10-2

EDUCATION/CERTIFICATION

Colorado State University, B.S. Industrial Construction Management
U. S. Department of Labor, Instructor of Construction Safety & Health
AGC, Construction Safety Specialist #93
National Commission For The Certification of Crane Operators, Certified Operator, Accredited
Examiner
Board of Certified Safety Professionals, CHST #C19
Board of Certified Safety Professionals, CSP #15357

EXPERIENCE

CRANE AND RIGGING SPECIALIST

The St. Paul Companies November 1999 – Present
Author, develop, and present crane and rigging training programs. Provide consultation internally and externally on crane and rigging issues.

LOSS CONTROL MANAGER

Premier Risktech July 1995 – November 1999
A subcontractor to Marsh & McLennan, Inc., insurance broker for the Owner Controlled Insurance Program at the new Austin-Bergstrom International Airport, Austin, Texas. Coordinate and direct loss control efforts to obtain maximum project benefit. Determine project training needs and direct train the trainer sessions for project staff and contractors. Work directly with, and assist, the project safety manager. Prepare and report statistics to the owner and project staff. Advise and assist the owner's risk manager.

PROJECT SAFETY MANAGER

Hensel Phelps Construction February 1992 - July 1995
Dallas Light Rail System, Dallas, Texas. Implement safety program on five (5) line segments totaling $89 million. Manage the safety efforts of four (4) other safety professionals.

CRANE OPERATOR

Independent August 1977 - January 1992
Operate, maintain, erect, repair and inspect all types of mobile and tower cranes. Owner of crane service for three years. Responsible for safety training of crane operators. Plan, implement and supervise all types of crane lifts. Assist management in equipment selection and utilization. Hire and terminate crane operators. Select and purchase rigging hardware and maintenance supplies.

David Ritchie
Box 1419
Bastrop, Texas 78602-1419
(512) 303-0079

PROJECT MANAGER/SAFETY DIRECTOR

Ritchie Contractors, Inc.

June 1970 - August 1977

Medium size general contractor with 50-75 employees. Vice President, project manager, safety director. Prepare competitive bids and negotiate projects. Hire field supervisory personnel, procure subcontractors and materials, process shop drawings and all job correspondence. Work directly with owner and architect. Ensure compliance with OSHA on all projects, procure and distribute safety equipment, perform record keeping requirements related to OSHA and insurance company.

PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATIONS

American Society of Safety Engineers, professional member
ACRP, Association of Crane & Rigging Professionals, board member
ASME B30.3 Subcommittee on Construction Tower Cranes, member
ASME B30.5 Subcommittee on Mobile Cranes
NCCCO, National Commission for the Certification of Crane Operators, commissioner

PUBLIC PRESENTATIONS

Construction Safety Council of Chicago (Feb., 2000)
Associated General Contractors of America, National Meeting (Mar., 2000) (Mar. 2001)
National Council of Safety Executives (Mar., 2000)
American Society of Safety Engineers Region 3 PDC (July, 2000)
Ford Motor World Safety Conference (May, 2001)
American Society of Safety Engineers, Const. Div. National Symposium (Oct., 2001)
Association of Crane and Rigging Professionals National Assembly (May 2002)
American Society of Safety Engineers, Region 3 PDC (August, 2002)