

OSHA Docket Office
Docket No. S-030
U.S. Department of Labor
200 Constitution Avenue, NW, Rm N-2625
Washington, DC 20210

(202) 693-2350

Candidate for membership on the OSHA, Negotiated Rulemaking Committee in behalf of the Western Line Constructors Chapter, Inc., NECA

William J. "Doc" Weaver

8065 S. Overhill Circle
Salt Lake City, Utah 84121
(801) 943-0757

SUMMARY OF ELECTRICAL INDUSTRY QUALIFICATIONS

GENERAL:

- Over 53 years of outside electrical construction experience
- Over 37 years of management positions
- Served as a member of the IBEW and NECA with vast contributions to both
- Chairman of numerous committees in the industry to promote standardization, safety, and growth in the industry.

INDUSTRY SERVICE:

Has been an innovator, inventor, advocate, and avid proponent of the Outside Industry during his tenure in the Industry. Over 40 years of working with and around cranes and derricks which have been an integral part of the outside electrical construction industry.

- Member – National Electrical Contractors Association (N.E.C.A.)
- Member – Mountain States Joint Apprenticeship & Training Committee
- Member – Manpower Development Committee (N.E.C.A.)
- Served on the Council of Industrial Relations, 2 years

WORK EXPERIENCE:

- The L.E. Myers Co., Sturgeon Electric, 2001 - 1984
 - Vice President - North West Division
 - District Manager - Western Division Manager
 - Responsible for all aspects of electrical utility contracting including estimating, the bid process, job planning, scheduling, billing and completion. On larger transmission projects actively holds position of Project Manager. Example would be The Salt Lake Airport Relocation Project.

-Industrial Electric Co. 1984 – 1979

President/Vice President

Responsible for all aspects of electrical utility contracting. This included estimating, the bid process, job planning, scheduling, billing and completion.

Acted as project manager on all projects which included distribution, substation and transmission through 230 Kv in the state of Wyoming.

William J. (Doc) Weaver

Continued pg 2

WORK EXPERIENCE:

-Interstate Electric E. 1979 – 1956

-Division of the L.E. Myers Co. 1979 – 1970

Employed as Foreman on a substation project. Advanced to General Foremen, Superintendent, and Manager of the outside division. Duties ranged from direct crew supervision responsibilities to overall management of the outside division. This included field construction, estimating, layout, and managing all jobs through completion. The scope of work ranged from 5 Kv distribution to 345 Kv transmission lines and substation construction. This included the first 230 Kv backbone lines for Utah Power, Montana Power, and Nevada Power.

-Various Contractors in the Inter Mountain Region 1956 – 1950

Employed as General Foremen, Foreman and Lineman

-United States Army 1952 – 1950

Honorable discharged as Sergeant M.O.S. Wireman and Foreman

-Fall River Elect. Co.op, Raft River Electric Co.op,

Lost River Electric Co.op, 1950 – 1948

Employed as Groundman, Operator, and Apprentice Lineman

AWARDS:

- 2001 In his honor for his lifetime commitment to the Outside Electrical Construction Industry, the Mountain States Line Constructors Apprenticeship and Training Joint Committee established a distinguished annual award; “The William J. “Doc” Weaver Award” recognizing an individual who has made significant and outstanding contributions to the Outside Electrical Industry.

-1996 U.S. Department of Labor Bureau of Apprenticeship & Training Certificate Meritorious Service.

-1996 Received the “L.K. Comstock Award” for outstanding contribution to the Industry through the field of Labor Relations.

-1995 Inducted into the Academy of Electrical Contracting by NECA.